ARTICLE XIII

Road Rules

A general summary is included below:

1. It is suggested that each member, guest operator, and all buddy riders wear adequate protective clothing which is defined as a safety helmet (even in abate states), a leather jacket (except when hot weather makes that unfeasible), long pants, leather boots at least beyond the ankles. In addition, each operator must wear protective eye covering or have a windshield on his vehicle and must comply with any state regulation regarding such.
2. Prior to each ride or run and prior to each segment of any ride or run, all operators will check their motorcycles for safe operation and have their gas tanks full.
3. On all club rides and runs all operators shall follow the instructions of the road captain and will stay in his assigned position in the formation as directed by the road captain.
4. The road captain shall maintain speeds consistent with legal limits, traffic, road, and weather conditions.

5. Two motorcycles may not travel beside each other in the same lane nor may one motorcycle pass another or any vehicle in the same lane.
6. Under no circumstances shall the road captain lead the formation between adjacent traffic lanes (even where state law permits) or expose those following him to injury, arrest, or both.
7. Only those motorcycles having sufficient power to maintain the maximum legal speed on a level highway as well as uphill when carrying an operator and/or luggage and/or a buddy rider will be permitted on any club ride or run. Operators are not to lag behind in their assigned position in any formation.
8. If any formation gets too large in the opinion of the road captain so as to present a hazard to passing vehicles or the safe conduct of the formation or state law, the road captain may divide the formation and appoint a lieutenant to head each division. Each lieutenant shall be regarded by those following him as having the power of the road captain.
9. The president shall be the last operator in the formation led by the road captain.
10. Any motorcycle having a 400cc or less engine will not be permitted to carry a buddy rider on any club ride or run.

ARTICLE XIV

Amendments

1. These By-Laws may be amended by a majority vote of the total members in good standing.
2. The proposed amendment must be presented at a general membership meeting and voted at the next general membership meeting.
